

TECHNICAL OPERATIONS MANAGER (Parental leave)

Xfly is a leading Long-Term Strategic Capacity Provider to commercial airlines in Europe. Xfly is operating a fleet consisting of CRJ700-900s, ATR72-600s aircraft for long-term ACMI operations.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Ensuring that the CAMO organisation remains in compliance with the applicable requirements (regulations, standards, Xfly procedures, etc.), including those regarding the management of safety;
- Ensuring the airworthiness of Xfly aircraft and that all continuing airworthiness tasks are fulfilled and maintenance is carried to an approved standards;
- Liaising with regulatory authorities, equipment manufacturers and other operationally relevant external entities;
- Establishing adequate co-ordination between flight operations, maintenance organizations and CAMO to ensure that all parties will receive all information on the condition of the aircraft necessary to enable all parties to perform their tasks.
- Comprehensive knowledge of EASA Part M and Part CAMO, Part 145 & IOSA regulations;
- Practical experience and expertise in the application of aviation safety standards and safe operating practices;
- Five years' relevant work experience from the aeronautical industry in an appropriate position;
- Hold a valid EU passport or a permanent EU working visa.
- Type familiarization trainings on CRJ 900, ATR 72-600 and ERJ 190/195 will be beneficial.

REQUIREMENTS

- Very good level of English, both spoken and written in combination with strong communication skills;
- Relevant engineering degree or an aircraft maintenance technician qualification with additional education acceptable to the ECAA;
- An excellent opportunity to become a part of the professionals in your field
- Exciting and responsible job in a multicultural company
- Attractive rates for worldwide private travel with our partner airlines
- Flexible work arrangements
- Opportunity to leave your footprint in the development of the company.

Please send your CV to cv@xfly.ee with the subject "Technical Operations Manager" by 05.02.2021.